Director Notes

SET DIRECTIONS

1. The Park: Initial scene where Milley and friends play, and parrots are removed.
2. Milley's Home: Scenes where Milley and Jenny adopt parrots and teach them good words.
3. The Park (Again): Final scene where parrots say good words and Milley receives an award.

CASTING

Where live parrots are unavailable or unable to participate, wooden parrots with microphones can be used, and a teacher or actor can voice the parrots' lines.

It's appropriate for a familiar teacher to play the role of Jenny, ensuring a smooth flow of dialogue.

This play is suitable for Preschool and Early Elementary School (Pre-K to Grade 2).

The play can include an additional three to four of Milley's friends beyond those listed in the play, who can either serve as silent actors or occasionally speak in unison, uttering single words or phrases.

ACT I: THE NAUGHTY PARROTS

Scene 1: The Park

Setting: The park

At Rise: MILLEY and FRIENDS play in the park. Three PARROTS fly in, squawking.

PARROT 1 (squawks)

Naughty Naughty!

PARROT 2

(flaps wings)

Bad boy, Bad girl!

PARROT 3

(covers beak)

Oh no!

PARROT 1 (laughs)

Boooo!!!

(ASHLEY, MURPHY and BEN remove the PARROTS. MILLEY looks sad.)

MILLEY (pouts)

Mum, I want us to adopt the three parrots so we can teach them good words!

JENNY (concerned)

Milley, the parrots swear on children and parents.

MILLEY (thoughtful)

It’s not their fault, they pick up these words from children and parents from the park.

JENNY (shrugs)

There is nothing we can do.

MILLEY (cries)

I like those parrots, and I want to teach them to be nice!

JENNY

(consoles MILLEY)

Don’t cry.

MILLEY (smiles)

We put them back at the park after they have learnt good words.

JENNY (smiles)

Okay, I will see what I can do. I will write to the park authorities.

(JENNY is seen writing a letter to the park authorities.)

Scene 4: The Return

Setting: The park

At Rise: JENNY and MILLEY prepare to return the PARROTS

JENNY (smiles)

Hello sweetie, now the parrots have started saying good words, it's time we give them back to the authorities.

MILLEY (pouts)

But mom, my friends and I are going to miss them.

JENNY (reassures)

You can go and see them every weekend to teach them more good words and make sure you correct them if they say a bad word.

MILLEY (smiles)

Do you promise, Mummy?

JENNY (promises)

Yes sweetie. Cross my heart.

(JENNY and MILLEY return the PARROTS to the AUTHORITIES.)

Scene 5: The Park (Again)

Setting: The park

At Rise: JENNY and MILLEY visit the PARROTS at the park

PARROT 1 (waves)

Hello!

PARROT 2 (smiles)

Good boy, good girl!

PARROT 3 (waves)

Have a nice day!

PARROT 1

See you soon!

(PARROTS see MILLEY)

PARROTS

Milley Milley!

PARROT 1

Good girl Milley!

PARROT 2

See you Milley!

PARROT 3

Bye bye Milley!

(Spectators and audience clap as they watch on.)

MILLEY (smiles)

Mom, see they know my name!

JENNY (smiles)

You did a good job training.

(reflects)

This goes to say kids can pick up bad words in school and at home, but it's left for us parents to correct them and teach them good words.

MILLEY (nods)

Yes, mom, you're so right!

(to PARROTS)

Always say good words, and I come every weekend to teach you more good words!

JENNY (smiles)

I am proud of you, Milley!

(LOGAN presents MILLEY with an award.)

LOGAN

Congratulations, Milley! You've done an amazing job teaching the parrots good words.

MILLEY (surprised)

Wow! Thank you!

(Spectators and audience clap and cheer as MILLEY holds her award.)
